

TRAILS

MAZATZAL WILDERNESS

There is a network of some 240 miles of “system” trails serving the Mazatzal Wilderness Area and contiguous areas. Their condition varies from satisfactory to very poor. All trails are closed to motor vehicles and mechanical transport such as bikes.

Use a great deal of caution when traveling on backcountry trails such as this one and be aware of the risks you assume.

A few brief comments are in order about the following trail:

Brush Trail 249: 4.2 miles long. Scenic vistas. Northern end has some sharp switchbacks. Elevation: 5,200 - 5,900 feet. Termini: Trail 34, and Trail 262 (near Knob Mtn.).

No more than 15 people are allowed to be in a group. No more than 15 head of livestock are allowed in a group.
